Apollo Middle School will host forum to address juvenile crime

WHAT: Parent involvement forum to discuss strategies to reduce crime among Nashville's youth.

WHEN: Thursday, Jan. 29, 6-7:30 p.m.

WHERE: Apollo Middle School, 631 Richards Road, Antioch, TN 37013

WHO: Joining Apollo Middle School and MNPS for this community forum is the Metro Police Department's Gang Unit, City Council members, Juvenile Court, Interdenominational Ministerial Fellowship, and more. The parent involvement forum discussions will include topics on gang activity, drugs, truancy and violence. Community leaders and officials will discuss proactive strategies to reduce juvenile crime, provide awareness and find solutions for youth violence in the community.

Metro Nashville Public Schools provide a range of educational opportunities to more than 75,000 students in Nashville and Davidson County. The governing body for MNPS is the Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County Board of Public Education, a nine-member group elected by residents of Metropolitan Nashville.
