Hillsboro High School host first technology fair

WHAT: First annual Technology Fair

WHEN: Thursday, Feb. 26, 6-8 p.m.

WHERE: Hillsboro High School, 3812 Hillsboro Road, Nashville, TN 37215

WHO: More than 20 local technology schools and centers will set up at the first annual Technology Fair, hosted by the Hillsboro High counseling department. Students and their parents will be able to meet with representatives of the schools, who offer either/or two-year and certificate programs in fields such as health services, business, culinary arts, communications, graphic arts, design, cosmetology, computer applications, audio technology, photography, and more.

Also during the fair, sessions will be available for parents to attend concerning the Career Academy courses that Hillsboro will be offering in the fall. Fair goers will enjoy demonstrations by the schools, and several Hillsboro students will showcase their own skills. Chris Young, a previous winner on Nashville Star and RCA recording artist, will also make a guest appearance.

Metro Nashville Public Schools provide a range of educational opportunities to more than 75,000 students in Nashville and Davidson County. The governing body for MNPS is the Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County Board of Public Education, a nine-member group elected by residents of Metropolitan Nashville.
