Hermitage Elementary displays M.C. Escher's illusion paintings

WHAT: M.C. Escher Traveling Exhibit

WHEN: March 6-12, 2009

WHERE: Hermitage Elementary School, 3800 Plantation Drive, Hermitage, TN 37076

WHO: Hermitage Elementary School will be displaying the paintings and drawings of master artist and illusionist M.C. Escher. The students and staff will enjoy the giant reproductions of Escher's paintings, including the Drawing Hands, an illusion of two hands sketching one another, one of Escher's most recognized prints.

M.C. Escher is a world-renowned graphic artist. He is most famous for his impossible structures, such as Ascending and Descending, Relativity, and Transformation Prints.

Metro Nashville Public Schools provide a range of educational opportunities to more than 75,000 students in Nashville and Davidson County. The governing body for MNPS is the Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County Board of Public Education, a nine-member group elected by residents of Metropolitan Nashville.
