Free computer classes offered to MNPS parents

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (April 14, 2009) – The Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools' Community Career Center is celebrating the opening of its newest computer training center by offering free computer classes to MNPS parents. The center is located at John Henry Hale Community Center, 1433 Jo Johnston Ave.

Parents will be offered classes in beginning, intermediate and advance Microsoft Word, as well as classes in Excel and PowerPoint. The center will also provide workshops to parents on how to write resumes, how to achieve personal finance and job readiness. To view the computer training class schedule, visit
