MNPS holds Summer Commencement

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (July 21, 2009) – More than 100 students will receive their high school diplomas from Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools during a summer commencement ceremony, Thursday, July 23, at 6 p.m., at Hillsboro High School.

Graduates will hear a special commencement address from Marc Hill, Chief Education Officer for the Nashville Area Chamber of Commerce. Also on program to speak will be Dr. Jesse Register, Director of Schools, as well as other district officials. These graduating students represent several MNPS high schools, including magnet and optional schools.

Metro Nashville Public Schools provide a range of educational opportunities to more than 75,000 students in Nashville and Davidson County. The governing body for MNPS is the Metropolitan Nashville and Davidson County Board of Public Education, a nine-member group elected by residents of Metropolitan Nashville.
